HERE IS WHAT MOST INTERESTS ME IN TEA...

As an entrepreneur and tea planter based in Moulvibazar, Bangladesh — a region steeped in the heritage of tea — I’m deeply passionate about redefining how Bangladeshi tea is perceived both locally and globally.

I’m particularly inspired by orthodox tea production — a process that requires both precision and patience — where every step, from plucking to rolling and drying, demands a deep respect for the leaf. For me, tea is more than a product; it's a platform for storytelling, sustainability, and social impact.

I aspire to build a brand that not only delivers premium tea directly from our estate but also uplifts the community, honors our land, and brings authentic Bangladeshi tea to connoisseurs around the world.

MY MAIN INTERESTS

• Educating consumers about tea's cultural significance, health benefits, traditions, history.
• Facilitating the exchange of best practices among growers, traders, and researchers.
• Leveraging digital technologies, including blockchain and artificial intelligence, to enhance transparency and efficiency.
• Mechanical expertise in mechanization, equipment selection and maintenance and field and factory operations.
• Marketing, brand building, practical experience in retail and wholesale, import and export and logistics.
• Tasting, blending, formulation, packaging, product life-cycle
• Advocacy, legal, legislative
